Grant Opportunities:

- The United Nations Democracy Fund (UNDEF)
 - UNDEF projects are two years long. Applicants can request a grant of a minimum of 100,000 US dollars and a maximum of 300,000 US dollars. UNDEF supports projects that strengthen the voice of civil society, promote human rights, and encourage the participation of all groups in democratic processes. The large majority of UNDEF funds go to local civil society organizations -- both in the transition and consolidation phases of democratization.
 - Applications begin Mid-November, 2017. Apply here.
- Ford Foundation
 - Ford Foundation supports efforts to make the systems that govern political participation more fair and inclusive, particularly for historically excluded populations. In particular, we seek to ensure that the rules of the game for political participation are inclusive of all, with a special focus on voting rights and democratizing money in politics in the US.

- Open Society Foundations - Latin America Program
 - The Latin America Program of the Open Society Foundations focuses its funding on four issue areas:
 - Accountability and Transparency
 - Citizen Security
 - Human Rights
 - Policy Debate and Dialogue
 - To apply for a grant from the program, please send a one- to two-page letter of inquiry to latinamerica@opensocietyfoundations.org. Your letter should include a paragraph about your organization and its mission, a description of the project, including a brief summary of the main objectives and proposed strategies of the project, the total amount of support being sought for the project, and the proposed duration of the project. This grant has a rolling deadline.

- Open Society Initiatives for Eastern Africa (OSIEA)

- OSIEA works through two strategic priority areas critical to addressing open society challenges in the region: 1) participation of citizens and 2) human rights.

- OSIEA supports projects in the following programmatic areas:

- Democratic governance and rule of law
- Economic governance
- Health and rights
- Equality and non-discrimination
 - For more information about these programmatic areas, click here. This grant has a rolling deadline.

- The Mott Foundation

- Civil Society (South Africa) Program

- The Mott Foundation supports efforts to increase civic engagement, encourage charitable giving and help communities make positive change.
- Grantmaking focuses on grassroots work to ensure underserved communities have access to legal assistance, growing community assets and fostering a culture of giving to help build participatory democracy at all levels of society.
- We make grants under two objectives:
 - Community Advice Office Sector
 - Philanthropy Development
